3.10 Splitting or Stringing Purchases

The splitting or stringing of purchases with the University purchasing card is prohibited. Splitting or stringing is the practice of committing multiple purchasing card transactions to circumvent delegated authority levels, bypass University competitive bidding requirements, or avoid maximum delegated authority levels.