POLICY: Use of Individual Faculty Grant Incentive (GIF) Accounts

Last Updated: June 21, 2013

Faculty may use their individual grant incentive fund accounts for any allowable purchase under University of Missouri, University of Missouri – St. Louis and College of Education policies with the exception of:

- Course release buyouts for themselves or others
- Additional compensation for themselves or other full-time benefits eligible faculty or staff
- Summer compensation for themselves or other full-time benefits eligible faculty or staff

Common uses of faculty grant incentive fund accounts include:

- Professional development travel
- Research related software, data sets, books, journals
- Graduate Research Assistant salary, benefits and tuition
- Consulting services such as grant writers, transcription services, etc.
- Non-capital equipment such as computers, iPads, etc.