Overview
The M.Ed. in education administration is designed for individuals interested in becoming a school leader. A total of 33 credit hours are required for graduation. Admitted students will progress through the program in a cohort. Our goal is to support aspiring leaders in developing the competencies and the capacity to be a school leader.

Plan of Study

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Semesters</th>
<th>Master’s In Education Administration (33 Hours)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fall (1)</td>
<td>Ed Adm 6701: Leadership for Equity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Ed Adm 6702: Supervision</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Ed Adm 6205: Legal Contexts of Education</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spring (2)</td>
<td>Ed Adm 6704: Data-Driven Instruction</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Ed Adm 6705: School Culture</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Take Either:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• Ele Ed 6411: Curricular Issues in Elementary</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• Sec Ed 6415: The Secondary School Curriculum</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summer (3)</td>
<td>Ed Adm 6712: Management of Organizational Systems</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fall (4)</td>
<td>Ed Psy 6445: Character Education and Development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Ed Adm 6901, 6902, or 6905: Elementary, Secondary, or Private School Field Experience*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spring (5)</td>
<td>Ed Adm 6714: K-12 School Administration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Ed Adm 6901, 6902, or 6905: Elementary, Secondary, or Private School Field Experience*</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

* To successfully complete the field experience, students must log a total of 300 clock hours and pass the performance assessment.