Our vision for graduates of this professional practice doctorate in Education?

That they will be the individuals prepared at the doctoral level to steward the profession.

A graduate of the program . . .

• Generates solutions to complex problems of practice that are equitable, ethical, and socially just
• Constructs and applies knowledge to make a positive difference in educational environments
• Demonstrates collaboration and communication skills in working with diverse communities and in building partnerships
• Possesses a professional knowledge base that integrates practical and research knowledge
• Links theory with systemic and systematic inquiry
• Generates, transforms, and uses professional knowledge and practice
• Understands the value and function of building a community of practice