Old Mother Hubbard
Went to the cupboard
To fetch her poor dog a bone;
But when she came there
The cupboard was bare,
And so the poor dog had none.

[There are additional stanzas, but this is the basic rhyme.]

History:
The first stanza of this verse was written in 1804 by Sarah Martin and is on display at Oxford University. She based her poem on the 1803 "Old Dame Trot, and Her Comical Cat" poem.
