Coming Soon!

Sponsored by

EDUC 5006 or ADULT ED 4311
Spring 2015
Teaching Basic Reading Skills to Adults

Course Information:

• 3-hour graduate or undergraduate course
• one of three courses in an Adult Literacy certificate
• can be applied to master’s degree in Adult Education

Course Objectives:

• Instructional strategies to address specific areas when teaching reading to adult learners
• Enhanced knowledge of adult learning processes and theories.
• Knowledge for successfully teaching to readers’ learning strengths, interests, and employment needs.

Class Schedule: Class meetings will be a combination of on-campus and on-line communication. On-campus meetings will be Mondays 5:30-8:30 p.m.

Financing: A limited number of scholarships will be available at the discretion of the Adult Advisory Committee.

Registration: UMSL offers flexible registration online. Visit our website www.umsl.edu/myview

Contact Person: Dr. Judith Cochran
206 Marillac Hall
314-516-7302 or 314-516-7268
CochranJu@msx.umsl.edu