

REALIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

The UMSL College of Education announces the

SUE SHEAR

Leadership Academy

Encouraging Women's Civic Engagement

★ June 9–18, 2021 ★

Apply to represent your school as a Shear Fellow.

What will you do as a Shear Fellow?

★ Develop leadership skills. ★ Learn how to craft and influence public policy. ★ Build self confidence.

This is a non-partisan, educational program and is open to participants regardless of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability and status as a military veteran.

Program Information and Requirements

Who

- Incoming Seniors 2021
- Women of all backgrounds and majors

What

- Spend 7-days networking, learning, and meeting with outstanding student leaders, savvy women in public life, public policy experts, and women office holders
- Successful completion of the program earns you a Leadership Certificate and Gift Card

When

- June 9: 9:30am-4:30pm
- June 10: 11:00am-4:30pm
- June 14 - 18: 11:00am-4:30pm

How

- Workshops held virtually
- No cost to students
- 1 letter of recommendation from a university faculty member or staff

Start your application

Apply Now ↗

Application deadline: April 18, 2021

UMSL | Sue Shear
Leadership Academy
University of Missouri–St. Louis

The Sue Shear Leadership Academy is hosted by the UMSL College of Education Center for Character and Citizenship, with support from the Women's Giving Circle and the John Templeton Foundation.

Learn more at our website:
umsl.edu/sueshear